B1 Preliminary Speaking Part 2 - Picture plan

Use the photograph to complete the plan with short notes. Then describe it aloud for about one minute. Your partner listens.

Describe what you can see. Use the present continuous for actions, and there is/are for people and things. The notes help you practise; the exam has no preparation time.

1. Give an overview

This picture shows... / I can see...

2. Describe the people and their actions

One person is... / The other person is... / She/He might be... / Maybe they are... / They seem...

---

3. Describe their clothes

One person is wearing... / The other one is wearing...

4. Describe the place and objects

They are in... / There is... / There are... / It looks like a... / There are some...

5. Organise the details

On the left/right... / In the foreground/background... / Next to them, there is...

TIPS

- Use while or whereas to contrast people or actions in the picture.
- If you forget a word, describe it: "It's something you use to..."
- Keep talking about the photograph until the examiner stops you.
