

Make vs Do

A. Here are some pictures of people at home. What can you see in the pictures?

B. Complete the sentences with MAKE or DO:

1. We normally use _____ when we are completing actions or tasks. It focusses more on the process.
2. We generally use _____ when we are creating, producing or constructing something. It focusses more on the outcome.

C. Complete the table with the words in the box to form collocations with MAKE and DO:

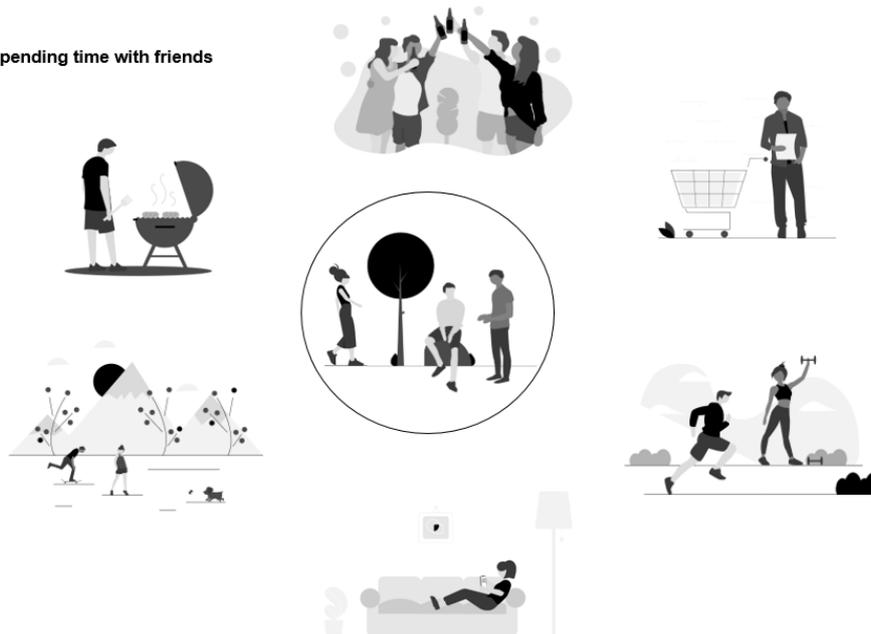

a mistake	nothing	a decision	exercise	homework	the cooking
a plan	a mess	your best	the bed	the dishes	friends

MAKE	DO
	the cooking

D. Speak with a partner using the collocations with MAKE and DO.

You are spending the day with friends. Talk together about what you could do.

Spending time with friends

ANSWER KEY

MAKE	DO
a mistake, a decision, a plan, a mess, the bed, friends, dinner	the cooking, nothing, exercise, homework, your best, the dishes