

Preliminary (PET) Speaking Part 3

In part 3 of the Preliminary (PET) Speaking Exam you will be asked to describe a picture to the examiner for approximately one minute.

Here is an example of a Preliminary (PET) Speaking Exam Part 3. Practise with a partner.

Now, I'd like each of you to talk on your own about something. I'm going to give each of you a photograph of friends spending time together.

(Candidate A), here is your photograph. Please show it to (Candidate B), but I'd like you to talk about it. (Candidate B), you just listen. I'll give you your photograph in a moment.

(Candidate A), please tell us what you can see in your photograph.

Approximately one minute

Thank you.

Now, (Candidate B), here is your photograph. It also shows friends spending time together. Please show it to (Candidate A) and tell us what you can see in the photograph.

Approximately one minute

Thank you.

Preliminary (PET) Speaking Part 4

In Part 4 of the Preliminary (PET) Speaking Exam you will be asked to speak with your partner about the same topic that you saw in the pictures in Part 3. The examiner will introduce the topic and ask you to speak together. You should speak for approximately 3 minutes.

Here is an example of a Preliminary (PET) Speaking Exam Part 4. Practise with a partner.

Your photographs showed friends spending time together. Now, I'd like you to talk together about what you like to do when you spend time with friends and where you like to go.

Allow the candidates enough time to complete the task without intervention.

Use the back-up prompts only if necessary.

Thank you. That's the end of the test.

Back-up prompts

- Talk about what you like to do with friends.
- Talk about where you go with friends.
- Talk about activities you can do with friends.
- Talk about things that you prefer doing alone.
